

Emergency Medical Technician (EMT) Class

Start Your Career in the Medical Field!

Class Begins Sept. 8

There's Still Time to Register!

Visit tcsems.org/emtclass

Location: Tri-Community South EMS
5490 Progress Blvd., Bethel Park, 15102

Date/Times: Weds., Sept. 8 - Saturday, Dec. 18. Classes meet Mondays, Wednesdays and every other Saturday.

Requirements: Age 18 or older by end of class; no felony on record; & must have access to computer or tablet and Internet access.

Course Fee: $750
CPR certification, EMSVO certification and FISDAP exams included.

Hard copy of textbook or e-Book to be purchased by student at own expense. "AAOS Emergency Care and Transportation of the Sick and Injured," 12th Edition, ISBN #9781284227222

- National Registry Exam Fee not included in course fee.
- Non-Credit Class
- Must have valid driver's license

Next to creating a life, the finest thing a man or woman can do is save one.

This course provides a basic foundation in pre-hospital emergency medical service care, as per procedures developed by the American Academy of Orthopedic Surgeons.

The program will be a minimum of 160 hours with combined lecture and practical skill sessions. Upon successful completion, students will be eligible for certification from the NREMT and the PA Department of Health as an EMT.

QUESTIONS?

Contact Gary Lemasters
lemasters@tcsems.org