Bethel Park Mayor Declares April 29 “Arbor Day in Bethel Park”

Bethel Park, PA – At Monday’s Bethel Park Council Meeting, Mayor Jack Allen presented a proclamation to the Bethel Park Shade Tree Commission designating Friday, April 29, 2022 as Arbor Day in Bethel Park.

During the meeting, the Commission also announced a tree planting event at Millennium Park on April 29 at 10 a.m. funded by the Bethel Park/USC Breakfast Rotary and the Municipality.

Trees to be planted on the 29th include: three Dura Heat Clump River Birch (10-12 ft.); three Autumn Blaze Red Maples (2-2.5 in.); two Celebration Red Maples (2-2.5 in.); and four Forest Pansy Redbuds (1.75-2 in.).

“We’ve invited the Rotary, Shade Tree Commission and Council to attend the event,” said Bethel Park Council President Tim Moury. “We’ll also have people there checking on trees we planted last fall, mulching around them, and planting flowers around the park’s entrance sign.”

Millennium Park is located at 5900 Baptist Rd. in Bethel Park.
